I hope you'll enjoy reading this booklet which tells about the history and organization of the CIA. Who knows--one day you may be sitting in my seat!

Dear

I have neglected to ask the Director to do a small favor for an admirer of his. The fact that the admirer is twelve years old makes me less hesitant.

Nothing would please this young man more than to receive a brief note from the Director of Central Intelligence on Agency stationery sending regards or virtually anything else.

As one suggestion, I offer the attached -- if you think well of it, would you type it up and I am sure Bill will sign it.

Many thanks.
